CITIZEN'S CHARTER

(3rd Edition)

March 30, 2023

Effectivity Date

I. Mandate:

Under Section 2 of Presidential Decree No. 1201 dated September 26, 1977 titled “Creating the Philippine Institute for Development Studies”, the Institute shall have the following purposes and objectives:

- a. To develop a comprehensive and integrated research program that will provide the research materials and studies required for the formulation of national development plans and policies. Such program shall be evolved through constant interaction between the Institute and the appropriate government agency or agencies;
- b. To serve as the common link between the government and existing research institutions, and for this purpose, to provide a forum wherein various research studies are discussed and evaluated;
- c. To conduct and undertake research requested by government or its agencies and to arrange for research to be conducted by other research institutions and individuals, locally and abroad;
- d. To conduct joint studies with domestic research institutions in the academic, government and business sector; and
- e. To establish a repository for economic research information and other related activities.

II. Vision:

By 2025, PIDS is the country's leading source of policy research and advice and a globally recognized think tank.

III. Mission:

PIDS provides forward-looking, responsive, and evidence-based policy research and actionable advice required in the formulation of development plans and policies and to enable informed public discourse in the country.

IV. Service Pledge:

1. We commit to deliver our services to our clients with highest degree of quality and efficiency to ensure stakeholders' satisfaction at all times;
2. We shall attend to requesting parties who are within the premises or even those who send their requests online prior to the end of official working hours and during lunch breaks; and
3. We pledge to perform our services with professionalism, integrity, and dedication to public service.
